1. INTRODUCTION

1.1 Purpose of the Audit and Risk Committee

The Audit and Risk Committee (Committee) has been established by resolution of the Board of Molopo Energy Ltd (Molopo or Company). The purpose of the Audit and Risk Committee is to assist the Board in discharging its oversight responsibilities. The Audit and Risk Committee will oversee the financial reporting process to ensure the balance, transparency and integrity of published financial information. The Committee will also ensure:

- (a) the effectiveness of the Company's internal controls.
- (b) an effective independent audit process, including approving the appointment and assessing the performance of the external auditor.
- (c) reliable and timely financial management and corporate reporting.
- (d) maintenance of effective systems of internal monitoring and accounting, financial and operational control; and
- (e) ensuring system and processes are in place to ensure proper business risk management.

2. ROLE AND RESPONSIBILITIES

2.1 Powers and Functions

The Board authorises the Audit and Risk Committee, within the scope of its responsibilities to:

- (a) improve the credibility and objectivity of the Company's accountability processes (including financial reporting).
- (b) perform activities within the scope of this Charter.
- (c) engage independent counsel and other advisers it deems necessary to carry out its duties.
- (d) ensure the attendance of Company officers at meetings as appropriate.
- (e) be directly responsible for the appointment, compensation, retention and oversight of the work of the external auditor, including rotation of the audit engagement partner; and
- (f) approve all audit and review engagement fees and terms as well as reviewing policies for the provision of non-audit services by the external auditor (and, when required, the framework for the pre-approval of such services).

2.2 Financial Risk Management and Internal Control

The Audit and Risk Committee should:

- (a) evaluate whether management is setting the appropriate control culture by communicating the importance of internal control and management of financial risk.

- (b) understand the internal control systems implemented by management for the approval of transactions and the recording and processing of financial data.
- (c) understand the controls and processes implemented by management to ensure that the financial statements derived from the underlying financial systems, comply with relevant Australian Accounting Standards and requirements, and are subject to appropriate management review; and
- (d) ensure risk management systems and controls are in place.

2.3 Financial Reporting

The Audit and Risk Committee should:

- (a) gain an understanding of the current areas of greatest financial risk and how these are being managed.
- (b) review significant accounting and reporting issues, including recent professional and regulatory pronouncements, and understand their impact on financial reports.
- (c) meet with management and the external auditor to review financial statements, key accounting policies, judgements and decisions, and the results of the audit.
- (d) provide a recommendation to the Board as to whether the Company's financial statements reflect the understanding of the committee members of, and otherwise provide a true and fair view of, the financial position and performance of the Company.
- (e) obtain from the Chief Executive Officer and the Chief Financial Officer, a written declaration under s 295A of the Corporations Act that:
  - (i) financial records have been properly maintained in accordance with the Corporations Act.
  - (ii) financial statements present a true and fair view, in all material respects, of the Company's financial condition, operational results and are in accordance with relevant accounting standards; and
  - (iii) there is an effective and efficient operation of the Company's financial risk management and internal compliance and control system.
- (f) review the Directors' Report.
- (g) review the Annual Report; and
- (h) review the Annual Financial Budget to include providing feedback on assumptions, objectives and fulfilling the strategic objectives of the Company.
